vs.

AT&T OPERATIONS, INC., a Delaware
Corporation; and DOES 1 through 100,

CASE NO. 10CV0744 WQH RBB

NOTICE OF RELATED CASE

Pursuant to The Southern District Court Civil Rule 40.1(e), Counsel for AT&T Operations, Inc. provides notice that the above-entitled matter may be a Related Action, as defined by Civil Rule 40.1(f), to the following matters:

Joseph Mahoney and Tonya Pillow v. AT&T Corp. et al., filed on February 13, 2008 in Los Angeles Superior Court, Case No. BC385361. On July 3, 2008, Plaintiffs filed a First Amended Complaint adding AT&T Operations, Inc. as a defendant and adding allegations that Defendants improperly classified California Project Managers and Sr. Project Managers working in specified business market channels as exempt from overtime

1 requirements.

2 Kid v. AT&T Operations, Inc. was filed December 18, 2008 in Los Angeles
3 Superior Court, Case No. BC404186. The Plaintiff in Kid alleges that a class of California
4 Project Managers and Sr. Project Managers were improperly classified as exempt. On 5 March 5, 2009, Plaintiff amended her complaint to limit the putative class to Project
6 Managers and Sr. Project Managers at issue in the Mahoney litigation.

7 The Mahoney and Kid matters were deemed related and have been consolidated for 8 settlement purposes.

9 The parties reached an agreement to settle the Mahoney and Kid matters, which 10 included a settlement sub-class of California Project Managers and Sr. Project Managers 11 who are individuals who (1) had the official job title of either Project Manager or Sr.
12 Project Manager during the relevant time period; (2) managed projects for external 13 customers of AT&T Corp., AT&T Operations, Inc. (formerly known as SBC Operations, 14 Inc.), AT&T Services, Inc., and/or Pacific Bell Telephone Company d/b/a AT&T California
15 (collectively "AT&T") in the Enterprise Business Services, Business Communications 16 Services, and/or Regional Business Markets market channels; and (3) were employed in 17 California by Pacific Bell Telephone Company and/or AT&T Operations, Inc. That 18 settlement and a notice of settlement was preliminarily approved by the Los Angeles 19 Superior Court on January 7, 2010.

20 Plaintiff Kathy Amirteymour is not a member of the Mahoney/Kid settlement class.
21 She did not, during the relevant time period, work in the Enterprise Business Services, 22 Business Communications Services, or Regional Business Markets market channels. Nor 23 did she manage projects for AT&T's external customers. Thus, these matters may not be 24 related to the action pending in this Court. However, Plaintiff purports to bring her action 25 on behalf of a putative class of current or former AT&T Operations employees who hold or 26 have held the job position of Project Manager or Sr. Project Manager during various stated 27 time periods, and some individuals in this alleged putative class are included in the 28 settlement sub-class preliminarily approved by the Court in Mahoney and Kid.

1 Assignment of these matters to a single judge is not feasible or appropriate. The 2 Mahoney and Kid matters are pending in State Court in Los Angeles County. These matters
3 are nearly resolved, with a class wide settlement preliminarily approved by the court. Thus, 4 assignment with a single district court judge, even if possible, would not likely effect a 5 saving of judicial efforts or other economies.

6 Dated: April 13, 2010.
